

(a) % variance explained by main effects (land–use models, factoring out residual variation)

(b) % variance explained by main effects (PGLS models, factoring out residual variation)

(c) % variance explained by main effects (PGLS models, factoring out residual variation and variation attributable to range area)

